About Swami Advaitananda

Swami Advaitanandaji is now the resident Acharya of Chinmaya Sandeepany. He was previously the resident Acharya at Chinmaya Vibhooti (Kolvan, India) and has served at Mission centers in Indore, Allahabad, Kolkata, Durban and Mumbai. An outstanding teacher with great depth beneath his simplicity and humility, Swamiji has taught two batches of students in the Vedanta Course in Hindi at Sidhabari and one batch in English at Sandeepany Sadhanalaya, Mumbai, as the Acharya-in-charge.

Endowed with a saintly heart overflowing with love and compassion for all and a pleasing personality, he is open to all those who seek his advice and is always accessible. He lives the philosophy he preaches, ever devoted to His Master and the knowledge of the ancient scriptures. Swamiji's divine discourses on the Upanishads, Bhagavad Geeta and Ram Charit Manas bring out the profound truth of the scriptures in the most lucid manner.

Of special note are his masterly expositions of episodes from Ramayan in their mythological and spiritual context embellished with melodious recitation of the chaupais and dohas. Swamiji's melodious voice and captivating bhajans transport listeners to nectarine bliss.
