“Giving Back to the Community” initiative established in 1987 provides grants of various amounts to local, national, and international non-profit organizations dedicated to Human Services. This year 36 such organizations are shortlisted to receive grants.

Our other programs of Human Services include free health screening, free yoga classes, free meditation classes, bone-marrow donor registration, partnering with the Alameda County Community Food Bank for canned food drives, and collaboration with local shelters to help the needy.
