Online Orientation Lectures From September 8, 2021 (Five one-hour lecture series)

Have you wondered and perhaps could not resolve following questions:

1. Am I a Hindu or sanaathana Dharmi or both?
2. What is it to be religious, orthodox, traditional, and/or driven by customs?
3. Are vedhik scriptures obsolete and irrelevant in today's life and living?
4. Do I entertain a sense of guilt that I am moving farther away from my religious practices?
5. Am I able to respond to my child or children's questions about our gods, rituals, or spirituality?
6. Am I continuing to struggle with stress at home and office like everyone else I know?
7. Could I lead a spiritual life here and now without procrastinating or waiting for my retirement?
8. Why isn't there or is there a single source of scripture such as the Bible, Koran, or Tarot for me?
9. Is there a scripture or practical manual to guide my life and living with joy, not just happiness (the moving target)?

The answer to above questions are provided in the Bhagavadh Geetha. Maharshi vyasa has left us this practical manual for life and living as a legacy and for free.
